Addison Willanger

Evergreen High School

Gateway Scholarship

$3,000

Addison will be attending the University of Washington this fall. She plans to major in nursing, which has been something that she is really passionate about. She feels that nursing connects well with her compassionate nature. She loves listening to others when they need and open ear and uses her resource to help anyone in need.

Receiving this scholarship has made a huge difference for her. She will use these funds for books and other college expenses. "Having this scholarship gives me the opportunity to succeed in my classes with all the materials I need. It will also help me meet my goal of being able to live in the dorms so that I have a reliable and supportive environment with so many different resources surrounding me during this new chapter of my life. I don't have to worry about how my family will be able to keep up with the costs of a university," shares Addison. "It is not only make a difference in my life now but throughout my years of college, helping me become steps closer to an amazing future."
