Harriette Fredenburg Memorial Scholarship

$2,000

Alma is headed to Highline College to study education. Her goal is to become a teacher and she is excited that she can study both at Highline College and Central Washington University on the same campus. Alma has been involved in the Teaching Academy at Evergreen which has allowed her to visit different schools and experience how being a teacher feels. Her hope is to become a math teacher for ELL students.

Alma's math teacher, Alison Hogue, shares, "Alma has laser focus on becoming a teacher, and isn't letting anything stand in her way. I would be proud to be Alma's colleague. As a bilingual future teacher, Alma will be an asset to her college, future employer, and future students. I am looking forward to seeing all the great work that Alma will do at the college level and beyond."

Receiving this scholarship is making a big difference in Alma's life because she now has more hope for her future. She enjoys helping people and is so grateful for this opportunity to help her receive a college education.
